Sue House

Title: President and CEO

Company: Powerhouse Consulting, Inc.

Born in Birmingham, Al, Sue House attended Auburn University. Moving 25 times in 27 years, she traveled around the world with her husband, Joe, a retired U.S. Army Colonel. In October of 1994, Sue joined the law firm of Holland & Knight as their Community Relations Coordinator. In September of 2001, she formed her own consulting firm, PowerHouse Consulting, Inc.

Sue has served the community by planning, planting, chairing committees and boards, and opening an NFL stadium. At the present, she serves on the Hillsborough Education Foundation, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, Emeritus for the Mayor’s Beautification Program, the Chiselers, Teaching Tools for Hillsborough Schools, and Past Chairman of the Board of Fellows at the University of Tampa. Through the years, she has received many awards and honors, among her favorites are: Citizen of the Year from the Tampa Bay Sports Club in 2007, The Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Civic Leadership Award by the Tampa Organization of Black Affairs, Angel of the Year from the Red Cross Angels, Winning the “Kiss a Pig” contest for the Boys and Girls Club, and being honored with her husband by Prevent Blindness as “Persons of Vision”.