THE UNIVERSITY
OF TAMPA

Summer Choral/Vocal Camp
For High School Students

JUNE 24-29,
2012

University of Tampa Campus

The UT Summer Choral/Vocal Camp is a one-week music camp for high school singers who will be entering the 9-12 grade in the fall of 2012. REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS MAY 25, 2012

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The UT Summer Choral/Vocal Camp is a one-week, music camp for high school singers who will be entering the 9-12 grade in the fall of 2012. Students should have experience singing in a choir and/or as a soloist. Although not required, previous private instruction is helpful. The program is designed to give high school students a chance to experience pre-professional training with collegiate faculty in a non-competitive environment. The curriculum will include courses in musicianship, optional private lessons, ensembles and special elective seminars during the week. The program will end with a final concert for all participants.

CAMP FACULTY

All music faculty will be The University of Tampa professors and/or certified educators in Florida. Housing directors and activity leaders will be carefully selected college students with camp counselor experience. All faculty are selected based on outstanding performance professionally and their personal commitment to providing the best experience possible.

Dr. Ryan Hebert, Director of Choral Studies
Dr. Hein Jung, Director of Vocal Studies

ENVIRONMENT

A student's performance depends on many factors, among them, challenging instruction, highly qualified and supportive faculty, a camp culture that builds community, accessible facilities and opportunities to grow in every dimension. At The University of Tampa Summer Choral/Vocal Camp, students will find the ideal conjunction of all these factors and more. The program is conveniently contained within the borders and safety of the UT campus.

Students may choose to be residential or day campers (9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.)

Residential campers will be housed, two-per room, in one of the dormitories on campus. Each room includes all accommodations, air conditioning and a community bath. Students will be accompanied by camp counselors at all times during the day and evening. Day campers will be provided lunch on each day and dinner the first evening.

CURRICULUM

Each student will take courses in musicianship, elective seminars, ensembles and optional individual instruction.* Evening activities will include faculty and student performances as well as other recreational events.

2012 CAMP DAILY SCHEDULE

- Sunday, 3-8 p.m. – Registration, ensemble auditions, dinner and rehearsal
