Flowchart for Academic Integrity (AI) Violations

Student violates Academic Integrity policy

Faculty should immediately check with the Associate Provost’s Office for prior violations. AssociateProvost@ut.edu or (813) 257-3147

Does the student have 2 prior violations?

IF YES

STOP!!

Turn the AI form into the Associate Provost’s Office

Final sanction to be handled by the Office of the Associate Provost

IF NO

The faculty member will follow the steps from the AI policy and impose a sanction, ensuring that the student understands he/she may not withdraw from the class, and if found responsible for the AI violation, may NOT use grade forgiveness.

Does the student accept the faculty sanctions?

IF YES

Turn in completed AI form and all relevant material to the Associate Provost’s Office

Case is concluded

IF NO

Turn in completed AI form to be adjudicated by the Associate Provost’s Office.

Does the student accept the decision made by the Office of the Associate Provost?

IF YES

The case will be reviewed by the AI committee

IF NO

Case is concluded