The Campus Recreation Department at The University of Tampa has an opening for a Personal Trainer. The position teaches group fitness classes to faculty, staff, and students. As a member of the Office of Student Affairs, this position will uphold the values of diversity and inclusion, collaboration, personal responsibility, professionalism and community and citizenship.

RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Develop personalized exercise programs for individuals or small groups and assist during workouts.
- Promote lifelong adherence to health and fitness programs through realistic goal setting and education.
- Provide participants with in-depth information on equipment usage.
- Attend monthly meetings, training sessions and provide service at Campus Recreation events.
- Ability to instruct at least one group fitness class per week if assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Valid certification from one of the following: ACE, AFAA, NASM, WITS, NSCA, or ACSM.
- Valid CPR/AED certification.
- Excellent communication skills with patrons and supervisors.
- Bachelor’s degree in health and/or fitness is preferred, but not required.

HOW TO APPLY:

- Email resume and cover letter to Brittany Schrader, Coordinator of Fitness, at fitness@ut.edu
- Please be prepared to perform a demonstration of your Personal Training skills as well as a 15-20 minute interview thereafter.
- $12-$15 per hour. Projected start date is August 29th, 2016.