RNC = Republican National Convention being held in Tampa Aug. 27 - 30

- Book your flight NOW for the Fall semester to ensure availability and cheaper airfare if you will be returning to campus via airline. Please keep in mind that it might be cheaper to fly into St. Petersburg/Clearwater or Orlando!

- Book a hotel NOW if family will be helping you move into your housing. You may need to book a hotel in the Brandon area, if you cannot find one around downtown.

- If you do not have a UT ID or have misplaced or broken your ID, contact the Spartan Card office to schedule a time to have a new ID made.

- ID’s will be required to be on campus. You will be provided a green lanyard to hold your ID, which you will need to wear at all times so that your ID is visible and accessible.

- Move-in day for Fall 2012 is scheduled for Saturday, August 25.

- Residence Hall guests will not be allowed until after the first week of classes.

- Be sure to check out the safety video. http://www.ut.edu/rnc/safetyvideo/

- Classes will begin on Monday, August 27. There will be no cancellations. All students are expected in class but should check Blackboard and UT e-mail to see if an online delivery will be offered for the RNC week.

- If you would like to see volunteer, part-time job, and internship opportunities related to the RNC, login to your HIRE-UT account and click on the one-click search.

- If a student organization is planning any type of demonstration, we ask that they notify the Office of Student Leadership Engagement so that the University has contact information in case of emergency or needs to communicate safety information to the organization.

- For the most up-to-date information from the University, please visit www.ut.edu/rnc and click on the “Current Students” tab to the left.
