The Parent PLUS Loan (Direct PLUS) is a credit-based loan for parents of dependent undergraduate students or graduate students enrolled at least half time. The annual limit on a PLUS Loan is equal to the student's cost of attendance minus any other financial aid the student receives. The U.S. Department of Education is the lender for all Direct PLUS Loans.

HOW TO APPLY: To apply for a PLUS Loan, parent borrowers and graduate students submit an application with the Department of Education at www.studentloans.gov. Please follow the instructions below to complete your PLUS Loan Application online.

- Parents go to the www.studentloans.gov website. Click “Log In” and sign in with your Parent FSA Username and Password (not students).
  *(Note: If you do not have an FSA ID, create one by clicking on “Create an FSA ID” or visiting www.fsaid.ed.gov)
- Click on “Request a Direct PLUS Loan”
- Select the applicable type of Direct PLUS Loan Request you would like to complete
  - Complete PLUS Loan Request for Parents” (use this option if you are the parent of a dependent student)
  - or
  - Complete PLUS Loan Request for Graduate/Professional Students (use this option if you are a Graduate/Professional Student)

The Department of Education will notify the University and the borrower of loan approval or denial within 1-2 business days.

If a parent is denied a PLUS Loan, the student becomes eligible for an additional unsubsidized Direct Loan (freshmen/sophomores up to $4,000; juniors/seniors up to $5,000). Parents denied the PLUS Loan for credit reasons also may pursue an endorser option or appeal the credit decision. Applicants who are denied for credit reasons will be asked to pursue this option during the online application process.
