Geneva M. Damron

Title: Member

Company: St. Joseph's Hospitals Foundation Board of Trustees

Geneva M. Damron is a resident of Sun City, is an accomplished educator and retired superintendent of schools in Springfield and Akron, Ohio. In her career in education, she has served as a first grade teacher, a secondary level teacher, a guidance counselor, principal, director of curriculum and staff development, assistant superintendent, and superintendent. She earned her bachelors degree from Kent State University and then earned her MEd and Ph.D in Educational Administration from her alma mater.

She is a dedicated volunteer who has served as President of Kent State University Women, Kent State University Alumni and the Kent State Alumni Association National Board of Directors, as well as fundraising chair for ZONTA International. Recently, Dr. Damron was honored by her alma mater, Kent State University, for her work in support of the School of Fashion Design and Merchandising. She served as president of Friends of Fashion, a volunteer organization that, under Damron's direction from 1996 to 2007, helped raise more than $171,000 to support the museum and the school. Locally, Dr. Damron is a member of the St. Joseph's Hospitals Foundation Board of Trustees where she has been active in several fundraising events including the Stepping Out Gala and Brides Around the World Showcase. She is a member of St. Joseph’s Philanthropic Women.