Rodney Kite-Powell

Title: Saunders Foundation Curator

Company: History at the Tampa Bay History Center

Rodney Kite-Powell is the Saunders Foundation Curator of History at the Tampa Bay History Center, where he joined the staff in 1994. His academic degrees include a Bachelor of Arts in history from the University of Florida and a Master of Arts in history from the University of South Florida. Born and raised in Tampa, he has written extensively on the history of Tampa and Hillsborough County. He is also editor of Tampa Bay History, a regional history journal published through a partnership between the Tampa Bay History Center and the University of South Florida Libraries' Florida Studies Center.

In addition to his duties at the history center, Mr. Kite-Powell is an adjunct professor of history at The University of Tampa, where he teaches a course on the history of Florida.