RULES for ENTRY

Deadline: October 1, 2013

Eligibility: All students, alumni, faculty and staff from the UT community who have had an international experience may submit photographs.

Exhibition: The Office of International Programs will display photographs in the Vaughn Center Lobby beginning mid-October, 2013.

Publication: The Office of International Programs will publish the top photographs in the 2014 Spartans Abroad Calendar. Calendar winners will be announced in December, 2014.

Suggested subjects: UT students, landscape/scenery, cultural expression, architecture/monuments and local color. Judging is based on artistic merit and how well the photo portrays a UT international experience.

Specifications: Entries that do not meet the specifications below will not be displayed in the exhibition or considered for publication in the calendar.

- Two entry maximum per person. Photo must have been shot on location outside of the U.S.

- Submit photographs in BOTH print and digital formats;

  - Printed images must be either 5”x 7” or 8”x 10” in size. Photos can be in color or black and white.

  - Digital images must be at least 1,600 pixels wide (if a horizontal image) or 1,600 pixels tall (if a vertical image).

  - Drop off photographic prints to the Office of International Programs in Plant Hall 302; an email with a link to upload your digital submission will be emailed to you upon receipt of entry form.

- Do not mount photographs onto photo board. Simply enclose in an envelope.

- Considerations: Pixilated photographs will not be displayed or considered for the calendar. Photographs downloaded from websites like Facebook have often been compressed.
