The University of Tampa Conduct Process

1. Incident occurs on or off campus

2. Victim(s)/witness(es) complete an Incident Report Form (IRF)

3. IRF turned over to the Office of Student Conduct

4. Accused student is notified of charge(s) and scheduled to attend a Pre-Hearing Interview

   - Charges dropped by Judicial Coordinator

5. Judicial Coordinator agrees with student

6. Pre-Hearing

   - Student admits responsibility
   - If student fails to attend a Pre-Hearing or Hearing, student may automatically be found responsible, issued sanctions, and is fined ($50).

   - If student denies responsibility

7. Conduct Board Hearing

   - Responsible
   - Not Responsible

8. Sanctions Only Hearing

   - Sanction(s) recommended by board and issued by Judicial Coordinator

9. If no appeal, Decision is final

10. Written appeal due to the Associate Dean of Students

11. Committee

   - New hearing granted

   - Original decision upheld

Second appeal to Dean of Students is considered if the student is suspended or expelled. New information not available during the first hearing must be presented at this time for the appeal to be heard.
