Transfer Student Family Information Session

Yovan Reyes, Associate Director
Academic Advising Office
Academic Success Center, North Walker Hall
Overview

• The registration process for new transfer students
• Making the best possible schedule
• Making schedule changes for the fall term
• Majors offered at UT and academic expectations
• Academic support services on campus
• How you can support your student in making the transition
• Problem solving
• Q & A
Registration Process for Transfer Students

• The flow of information and the tools used to make schedules
• Curriculum worksheet—parts of the curriculum
• The registration interview session; anticipating the unexpected
• Teaching the process of selecting classes
• Modeling appropriate interaction with faculty advisors
Making the best schedule possible—considerations

• Unlike freshmen, transfer students have varying starting points
• The differing approaches between scheduling freshmen and transfer students
• The timing of course offering and prerequisite sequencing
• Registration preference and closed courses
• Making a workable schedule for the first time out
• Providing a balanced schedule
• Scheduling for future terms
Schedule Changes are still possible

• Students have had all summer to make changes by calling AAO
• Drop-add will be available online after the mandatory Transitions Program presentation
• Students should be extremely careful about making changes
• Examples of necessary changes: duplicate credit, placement testing; change of major
Majors offered at UT and Academic Expectations

- All undergraduate majors share the common liberal arts core curriculum
- Most popular majors include Biology, Communication, COB majors
- Pre-professional programs include pre-law and pre-medicine
- Majors requiring special admission include Education, Nursing, Athletic Training, Performing Arts and Music Performance
Majors offered at UT and Academic Expectations (cont’d)

• Study time is critical: two hours prep time for each hour of lecture
• Focus on conceptual learning as opposed to memorization
• Self direction and collaboration are expected
Academic Advising Services

• Academic Success Center
  – Academic Advising office
  – Academic Center for Excellence
  – Office of Student Success

• Office of Career Services

• Saunders Writing Center
Supporting the Transition

• Expect growth and development
• Respect your student as an adult (FERPA)
• Stay connected
• Show an interest in your student’s academics
• Know the academic calendar and ask questions at the proper junctures
Problem Solving

• Have your student do the heavy lifting
• Don’t try to be your student’s academic advisor
• Know where to refer your student for help when needed
• Encourage your student to take advantage of the campus resources
Key Dates

• 8/25: First day of classes—Before attending class, check student schedule for classroom location changes, cancelled sections, other changes
• 8/27: Last day to drop/add 1st 7-week classes
• 8/25-8/29 (3 pm) Drop/add period for 14-week classes; after 8/29, no adding; withdrawn courses graded “W” (a non-punitive grade, but there may be other consequences)
• 8/29 (3 pm) Check schedule—schedules for students with unresolved bills dropped after 3 pm; contact Bursar/AAO in case of cancellation
• 9/23: Last day to withdraw from 1st 7-week classes; after this date enrolled 1st 7-week courses subject to grading
• October: Meet with faculty advisor for spring 2013 registration clearance; see SpartanWeb for faculty advisor assignment
10/15: Second 7-week classes begin; drop/add period for 2nd 7-week ends 10/18
10/30: Early registration for spring 2013 opens; faculty advisor clearance required; registration begin time on SpartanWeb
11/3: Last day to withdraw from 14-week classes; after this, enrolled 14-week courses subject to grading
11/11: Last day to withdraw from 2nd 7-week classes; after this date enrolled 2nd 7-week courses subject to grading
12/6: Last day of classes
12/8-12/11: Final Exams—the exam schedule is different from class schedule
12/12 (11 am): Residence hall close for all students except graduating seniors