Colleen Quinn Investigations

Colleen Quinn-Adams is the President of The Legal Investigation and Mitigation Offices of Colleen Quinn Investigations, where she has provided over 25 years of service on both the state and federal levels. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from the University of Tampa in Tampa, FL and a Masters in Psychology from Argosy University in Atlanta, GA. Colleen's uniquely acquired education and experience as an investigator and mitigation specialist has assisted in the continued growth of the CQI model for the past 30 years.

Through her education, experience, skills, and training Colleen has devolved and applied the "CQI Model" to her cases, bringing a constancy to working a case from start to finish.

Colleen has worked thousands of civil cases, including but not limited to, MVA's, dog bites, toxic mold cases, insurance fraud and nursing home abuse. Additionally, she has worked federal cases including capital cases, medical malpractice, and death cases. Colleen has also provided expert testimony. Over the past 10 years her focus has been Death Penalty cases. Specifically, providing a biopsychosocial profile of the accused to the judge and jury.

Colleen's media appearances include CBS 10 WTSP, WFLA News Channel 8, TBO.com, The New York Times, Seattle Times and the Tampa Tribune, as well as an acknowledgement the book "The Human Face of Big Data."
