

Teresa Stinson

Senior Vice President
C&I Banking Relationship Manager
Cadence Bank

Teresa Stinson has more than 32 years of Retail and Commercial Banking experience and is currently a Senior Vice President starting the Commercial Bank for Cadence Bank in Florida. She began her career with Barnett Bank in Consumer Lending, Branch Management and stayed through the NationsBank and Bank of America mergers in her role as Regional Sales Director for Retail Banking with over 300 employees. After 13 years Teresa was recruited to build the Retail Bank Division for Wachovia in Tampa Bay and created a successful DeNovo roll-out and bank acquisition strategy until Wachovia was acquired by First Union. Her roles at the new Wachovia included Financial Specialist Sales Leader, Acquisition Banking Director, Commercial Client Manager, along with Chair of the Diversity Council representing over 10,000 employees. Stinson stayed through the Wells Fargo Merger and then returned to Bank of America in their Global Commercial Bank as a Senior Vice President and Client Manager.

Stinson holds a BA from The University of Florida, is a Founder and Past President of Voices for Children of Tampa Bay, 40 Under 40 Award Recipient by the Tampa Bay Business Journal and member of Leadership Tampa Alumni, Association for Corporate Growth, Women's Executive Leadership and The University of Tampa Board of Fellows.
