

Dee Moses

Dee Moses is the Principal Double Bass of the Florida Orchestra, and a member of the artist associate faculty at The University of Tampa. His career encompasses symphony, opera, solo playing, chamber music, composition, and teaching. Dee maintains a private studio, and presents master-classes and recitals. Mr. Moses received his high school diploma from the N.C. School of the Arts. His bachelor's and master's degrees are from the Cleveland Institute of Music as a student of Lawrence Angell. Summer affiliations have included the Musica Viva, Cooperstown, Scotia, Eastern, Bowdoin, and Taipei festivals. From the summer of 2005 Dee has performed as Principal Bass of the Wintergreen Summer Music Festival in the mountains of Virginia. In 1996 Mr. Moses first performed chamber music with the esteemed musicians of La Musica International Chamber Music Festival, with whom he has subsequently collaborated frequently. Dee has performed as soloist with the Florida Orchestra in the Koussevitsky Concerto, the Paganini "Moses Fantasy" and the Florida premiere of the Harbison Concerto for Bass Viol. In 2009 he gave the world premiere of "Camouflage" by Daniel Adams with the McCormick Percussion Ensemble. This piece is now available on Ravello Records. Dee collaborates as composer for choreographer Elsa Valbuena and the group Gaudere Danza.
