

Dolly Roberts

Dolly Roberts is one of the most sought after professional harpists in Florida. She can often be seen performing with The Florida Orchestra, Imperial Symphony Orchestra, Opera Tampa, Gainesville Chamber Orchestra, and The Master Chorale of Tampa Bay. She has a Bachelor of Arts from Rollins College and a Masters of Music from University of South Florida. Dolly has performed on stage live with celebrities such as Marie Osmond, Julie Andrews, Tony Bennett, Johnny Mathis, famed operatic tenor Luciano Pavarotti and other world-renowned artists. In addition to her professional ensemble commitments, she is often requested for private parties and events, frequently performing solo or in ensemble at local churches, charities, weddings, funerals and other functions. She has made four solo harp recordings, and has been the featured accompanist on numerous others.
