

Rodney Shores

Originally from Greensboro, NC, Rodney Shores is a music educator, performer, choral conductor, and lecturer who also specializes in the history of Christian worship and philosophy. He has conducted for the Gulf Coast Youth Choirs, and has served as guest conductor for the Master Chorale of Tampa Bay's Festival of Voices. Dr. Shores currently sings as tenor in the Bay area's own Florida ProMusica, is a section leader in the St. Andrew's Episcopal church choir, and maintains a private voice and piano studio. Dr. Shores holds masters degrees in piano performance, choral conducting, as well as an advanced graduate certificate in piano performance and pedagogy. Additionally, he studied theology and philosophy at Reformed Theological Seminary in Oviedo prior to completing his doctorate in historical liturgics from the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies in Orange Park, Florida.